Residential on 0 Acres

Running Springs (RUSG), Running Springs,

Recently taken off the market to extensively revitalize the interior by intensively scouring and polishing the walls, floors and carpets. Now, the halls have a distinctively light and airy scent to them and give the quality of a diamond brought back to brilliance. Price Reduced. Owners have moved. Tucked among mature pines yet walking distance to local cafÃ©s, shops, the playground, post office, and Snow Valley. Inside, a vaulted great-room ceiling and rich parquet flooring create an airy lodge feel, anchored by a high-efficiency wood-burning stove installed less than two years ago. Fresh ceilings in the living room and bedrooms, upgraded electrical, and one of the few homes on the mountain with a Nest-controlled central air-conditioning system added last year ensure year-round ease. The open kitchen features a nearly new, warranty-protected refrigerator, while the bathroom showcases designer tile, a custom countertop, statement backsplash, and a brand-new toilet. Worry-free living continues with updated sewer lines, perimeter drains, and a professionally sealed foundation completed six years ago. Beyond the tiled entry, an expansive deck invites summer lounging beneath the trees, and a large, level parking pad, fenced yard, and roomy Tuff Shed make mountain life effortless. Simply move in and start making memories.
