California Bungalow Meets Modern Hacienda Elegance. Thoughtfully reimagined, this home blends classic California bungalow charm with warm hacienda-style touches. Nestled on a quiet, non-through street in one of West Adamsâ€™ most sought-after pockets, it is a timeless yet modern sanctuary. The front yard features native, drought-tolerant landscaping on drip irrigation, ready to explode in the coming year. An open layout drenched in natural light flows effortlessly through the living, dining, and chefâ€™s kitchen areas.

Hand-applied plaster walls add artisanal texture, while butcher block countertops and a white granite waterfall island provide warmth and elegance. The Forno bistro appliance suite offers multifunction cooking, perfect for culinary creativity. Three renovated bedrooms include a serene primary suite designed as a private retreat. French doors open from the second bedroomâ€“currently staged as an officeâ€“offering versatility as a formal dining room, creative space, or guest room. The first bathroom is a design statement, featuring floor-to-ceiling hand-poured micro concrete with handcrafted zellige tile accents. A vintage vanity topped with a sculptural marble sink basin adds texture and warmth. The primary suite is bright and airy, boasting a spa-like bath with an arched walk-in shower drenched in handmade tile. A Dutch door opens directly to the backyard, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor flow that embodies the best of Los Angeles living. Step outside to a private backyard retreat designed for comfort and seclusion. A custom pergola provides shaded dining perfect for entertaining, complemented by a built-in BBQ, cozy firepit, and a lush ficus green wall creating a serene backdrop. A raised planter box invites you to cultivate your own vegetable garden, bringing farm-to-table living steps from your door. The detached garage has been fully renovated and transformed into a 220 sq. ft. versatile bonus space; Outfitted with recessed lighting, durable rubber mat flooring, a laundry nook, it's ideal as a home office, studio, gym, or guest retreat. Additional updates include a brand-new roof, energy-efficient windows, a tankless Water heater, ductless AC, luxury flooring, and fully remodeled kitchen and bathrooms, crafted to blend style with functionality.
