N/A, Riverside,

Welcome to this meticulously maintained circa 1965 home. The home offers a beautiful newer roof, an amazing HVAC system and an efficient water heater. The kitchen and both bathrooms have been tastefully upgraded. Built during an era when open living and family gatherings were at the heart of design, the home carries classic 1960s touches—think clean lines, simplicity, generous natural light and a classic brick fireplace that anchored many family memories of the time. The cul-de-sac setting reflects the suburban boom of the mid-1960s, when neighborhoods were designed for community and a sense of retreat.
