Residential on 2 Acres

N/A, Joshua Tree,

Welcome to the newly built Vista Terra, a super luxurious retreat of mid-century modern design with all the elements from the natural beauty from Joshua Tree. Situated on two and a half acres, the home has impressive views of the mountains in every direction from inside the home and from anywhere across the vast grounds. The great room inside the home has amazing natural light throughout with high windows and an entire wall of sliding glass doors to look out on all the amenities provided. The kitchen is designed with beautiful tilework, a large center island, quartz countertops and stainless-steel appliances, a coffee and bar area for morning and night, and a dining area as well. Three large bedrooms with each their own unique design and coloring to match the guest that stays and access to the outside. Two desert-chic bathrooms with amazing tilework. And for the best part, the outside amenities, which include a hot tub to warm up at night and cowboy tub to cool down during the day, a concrete firepit to gaze out on the stars at night and keep warm, a frisbee golf course, an outdoor tub with shower, a barrel sauna, a hammock area and two hanging chairs off the back of the home. This home has been artfully curated and professionally designed to be aesthetically pleasing to the eye but also have all the luxuries and amenities a vacation home or investment property would need.
