Recently updated, 606 Avenida Victoria, San Clemente - The Oceanfront Hacienda. Step into a piece of history with this extraordinary Spanish villa, a historic property built in 1929 by San Clemente's visionary founder, Ole Hanson. Perfectly embodying his dream of a "Spanish Village by the Sea," this architectural masterpiece offers breathtaking oceanfront living in an iconic location directly across from the San Clemente Pier. This timeless villa showcases stunning Spanish architectural elements, including hand-hewn wooden beams, intricate Spanish tile floors, stucco and plaster walls, and brick fireplaces. The home's elegant design and craftsmanship are evident in every detail. With five ocean-view bedrooms, four full kitchens, four living rooms, and ocean-view patios - including a large oceanfront patio - this property offers a versatile layout perfect for comfortable living, entertaining, or income potential. An attached two-car garage adds to its practicality.

Originally built as a single-family residence and the only oceanfront SFR in the Pier Bowl, the property was converted to a legal non-conforming fourplex in the 1960s. It offers incredible flexibility as a single-family home, a fourplex, or a mixed-use property.

The Oceanfront Hacienda is a Mills Act property, providing significant tax benefits while preserving its historical charm. The current owners have meticulously restored the property to maintain its original elegance while accommodating modern needs. With vacation rental potential, this home is also an entertainer's dream, featuring patios perfect for dining, lounging, and enjoying panoramic views of the ocean, Catalina Island, and the San Clemente Pier.

This property represents more than a home - it is a legacy of San Clemente's heritage and a reflection of Ole Hanson's vision.
