Capistrano Bluffs By Sea (CB), Dana Point,

Historic Spanish-Inspired Coastal Retreat in Capistrano Beach

Discover a rare opportunity to own a Spanish-style historic home in Dana Point's coveted Capistrano Beach. Built in 1929 by the Doheny family and designed by renowned architect Roy C. Kelley, this single-level residence blends timeless elegance with modern updates. Once home to celebrated artist Louise Leyden, this property is more than a house, it's a piece of Southern California history. Listed on the historic register, it offers exceptional property tax savings and unmatched architectural significance. Just blocks from Pines Park with its panoramic ocean views and breathtaking sunsets, this home is the ultimate coastal retreat. Inside, authentic charm shines through original door hardware, antique light fixtures, and period wood plank floors. Hand-painted exposed ceilings add artistic flair, while the central courtyard with its wood-burning fireplace creates a seamless indoor-outdoor flow perfect for entertaining. Don't miss your chance to own this iconic Dana Point home and experience the beauty of Capistrano Beach living!
