Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, San Jose,

Welcome home to this delightful 1906 Naglee Park bungalow with charm and character. This home has been lovingly maintained and upgraded with solar panels and features three bedrooms, a detached guest house and a magical private backyard with a large deck and spa that's perfect for relaxation and entertaining. The interior features lovely engineered plank flooring, a living room with gas fireplace and a large eat-in kitchen with windows facing the backyard. The home also has flexibility and potential for the hobbyist or possible expansion with a large unfinished basement and a large attic. The backyard steals the show though with the huge deck and mature landscaping. Tall palm trees and large Japanese maples shade the backyard. The former carriage house was converted in the past to a detached guest house with full kitchen and bath. The bonus 300+sf is a welcome retreat with lots of potential. This is a special property offering privacy and comfort in a great neighborhood in downtown San Jose.

Built in 1906
