N/A, Redwood City,

Deemed to be built by Joseph Eichler, this home reflects his iconic mid-century modern design combined with a whole-home remodel. On a generous corner lot with complete privacy, the home showcases indoor/outdoor living with a signature wall of glass spanning the rear. Original beamed and paneled ceilings remain, all walls have been sheet rocked and painted crisp white, and new engineered white oak floors unify every room. The open kitchen features wood grain cabinetry, zinc countertops with waterfall island, and subway-set tiles, with a chalkboard wall adding a creative touch. High end appliances include a gas range with pot filler. Remodeled baths, stylish lighting, and curated finishes enhance the fresh appeal. The oversized rear yard offers patio space, lawn, built-in seating, and raised beds. Located in a neighborhood known for its strong sense of community, with easy access to parks, tech centers, and commuter routes.
