N/A, Santa Clara,

Comprehensively remodeled from top to bottom under the direction of a renowned interior designer, this single family home + detached office unit was meticulously designed and improved with the intention of being the owners' forever home and, as a result, there are simply too many upgrades to list, both inside and out. Step inside and you'll immediately be struck by the openness of the light-filled layout and the luxuriousness of its centerpiece, the wrap-around chefs kitchen with premium modern cabinetry and quartz countertops with full backsplash. Not a single square foot of space is wasted in the spacious great room or in three comfortably sized bedrooms (including a master with mini-split air conditioning and slider access to the back patio and yard) and two fully remodeled bathrooms with designer-selected vanities and finishes and striking floor-to-ceiling tiled shower walls for low-maintenance luxury. Despite its central Santa Clara location, just a short walk from a legendary donut at Stans and the International Swim Center, the backyard is uncommonly idyllic, thanks to the neighbor to the rear -- the Santa Clara Library. The owner worked from home the past year from the quiet detached office, which can also easily work as a man cave/she shed or small workout/yoga space.
