N/A, Aptos,

Buying an artists home means stepping into something you can't recreate, a place where ocean views, rare craftsmanship, and distinctive design come together in one of Aptos' most sought after locations. This home truly captures what luxury coastal living should feel like. Every detail has been curated to serve the ocean views. Sculptural light fixtures throughout, and custom tile work you won't find replicated anywhere else. Wolf and CafÃ© appliances, a steam oven, and custom cabinetry make the kitchen as practical as it is beautiful, the kind of space where friends gather around the island as you open the doors and the ocean air moves through perfectly. Two decks extend the living spaces outside. One is the spot for that first cup of coffee. The other is where evenings naturally drift, wine, conversation, and the view stretching ahead. The backyard stretches further than you'd expect for a coastal property. It's fully fenced and open, with room for long outdoor meals, pets to roam freely, and the simple luxury of walking barefoot through the grass as the day begins. Here, comfort and intention meet, and every choice feels undeniably connected to the ocean.
