N/A, Seaside,

An original mid-century modern home from 1957, renovated this summer to both complement its initial design and conform to today's sensibilities, including, but not limited to, a new kitchen, bathroom and windows. A property focused on minimization to maximize a lifestyle of coastal living in sunny Seaside. With a sizable private backyard to make your own, whether it be a garden, a bbq and al fresco patio or even just a lawn for the dogs, there is great opportunity to still improve upon an already beautiful setting in a neighborhood filled with property pride. The oversized 288 sqft single-car garage leaves ample space to both park a vehicle and have a hobby area.
