Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Palo Alto,

With 1,100 sq. ft. of living space, this English Tudor style cottage near downtown Palo Alto is a jewel box home blending European heritage with California sophistication. Inspired by the Tudor grace that once influenced Walt Disney's castle, it evokes storybook beauty with modern comfort and craftsmanship. Walk up to a manicured courtyard framed by hydrangeas and greenery, a serene retreat for afternoon tea or quiet gatherings. Inside, traditional architectural details including picture rail moldings, decorative millwork, marble accents, and hardwood floors highlight timeless craftsmanship. This home offers an exceptional alternative to condominium living with the privacy of a standalone residence. The living room features a classic fireplace with a new mechanism and new lightings, while the kitchen showcases marble counters, custom cabinetry, and a reupholstered banquette. 2 bathrooms echo the home's elegance with marble finishes and upgraded fixtures. 3 bedrooms include a spacious primary and a jewel box secondary with built ins. Recent updates such as fresh paint, new sewer lateral, and full termite tenting ensure peace of mind. Steps from University Avenue, Stanford, and top rated schools, this home captures the rare elegance of a mini mansion in the heart of Palo Alto.

Built in 1927
