3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,800 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Escondido,

Charming Mid-Century Cottage - This meticulously maintained single level home features original wood flooring, an open beam vaulted ceiling, a brick fireplace and lots of windows which allows an abundance of natural light. The kitchen is generously sized and features hardwood cabinets, a large island and a wonderful walk-in pantry. The cozy family room just steps away from the kitchen creates a fantastic entertaining atmosphere. The oversized three bedrooms are separated at one end of the house, which allows for privacy. The property is surrounded by lush greenery, including a citrus orchard with a variety of citrus species, three mature well-producing avocado trees, and vibrant foliage, creating a tranquil and serene atmosphere. The covered patio runs the length of the house, steps away from the outdoor kitchen, leading to even more entertaining space. There is a brand-new roof and a/c provides security for both winter storms and summer heat. The long private driveway wraps around the whole property allowing easy entry and exit with ample parking for all your entertaining needs. A great location located close to shopping, schools and historic downtown Escondido.

Built in 1953
