N/A, Vista,

Looking for a home that's anything but ordinary? This fully custom, single-story home, built in 2007, delivers thoughtful design, modern upgrades, and wide-open space – all set behind a gated entry with rolling foothill and treetop views. Step inside this 3 bedroom home with an optional 4th bedroom or hobby room, and you'll immediately notice the vaulted ceilings to the seamless blend of sleek engineered wood and tile flooring throughout. The updated kitchen is equipped with a electric induction cooktop, new dishwasher and microwave, trash compactor, quartz countertops, built-in refrigerator and a spacious walk-in pantry. Expansive south-facing windows flood the main living areas with natural light highlighting an open, entertainer-friendly layout ideal for gatherings of any size. The primary bath has been beautifully updated with fresh custom tile, quartz counters, and a never-used soaker tub. Designed with privacy and function in mind, each side of the bath lives like its own private space with separate vanities, separate toilets, and individual access. Both sides connect through a unique, custom-designed curbless walk-in shower and a spacious, double-sided walk-in closet. Other home features include refreshed guest baths -- the powder bath has been updated with stylish new tile and quartz counters, while the hall bath offers new quartz counters, and upgraded sink and fixtures, and a new frameless shower door. Smart thermostats control the dual-zone home HVAC system, keeping the home comfortable year-round, while the recently certified interior sprinkler system provides added peace of mind. The oversized kitchen island invites casual meals, morning coffee, evening cocktails or enough space for your holiday cookie making. And with cozy fireplaces in both the living room and primary suite, you'll always feel right at home. A separate full guest wing provides privacy for visitors and includes a convenient interior laundry area. The oversized 3-car garage offers plenty of room for vehicles, tools, and those projects you keep meaning to tackle. Fully OWNED SOLAR (18 panels) keeps true-up bills low (typically just $350-$400 per year) so you can enjoy guilt-free A/C all summer long. Outside, the beautifully landscaped, mostly drought-tolerant grounds stretch across more than 2 acres offering endless flexibility for outdoor living and entertaining. The expansive 3,000 sqft paver patio, complete with a built-in propane BBQ and firepit, easily accommodates gatherings of 80-100 guests, with plenty of on-site space for parking to match. Mature fruitless olive trees, rolling green views, and thoughtful hardscaping create a space that feels both relaxed and refined. Whether you're hosting a weekend brunch, a casual cookout, or a large celebration under the stars, this yard adapts to your lifestyle. The property also includes a rolling gated dog run, two sheds, and extra parking for guests, toys, or RVs plus room to add an ADU, pickleball court, or pool to truly make it your own. Additional highlights include an extended covered patio thoughtfully added by the sellers to create a larger, more comfortable space for year-round outdoor living, along with custom wrought iron fencing and a privacy driveway gate. With its custom design, smart upgrades, and a sprawling lot full of potential, this home delivers the perfect blend of comfort, style, and flexibility. Whether you're entertaining, hosting guests, or simply enjoying the views, life here just gets better.
