Cameo Shores (CSHO), Corona Del Mar,

Located within the prestigious Cameo Shores enclave and featuring scenic creek and peek-a-boo ocean views, this magnificent Mid-Century Modern home maintains its original character while incorporating today's preferred design aesthetic. Reflecting an extensive 2020 remodel designed by Lindye Galloway with Principle Design & Construction as contractor, the home is warm, inviting and an ideal match for a wide variety of lifestyles. A custom glass-framed door provides passage to the extra-open and light-filled interior, which spans approximately 3,647 square feet on one impressive level. Four en suite bedrooms and four- and one-half baths offer their own unique style while providing comfort and privacy from main living areas. Vaulted open-beam ceilings, clerestory windows, and several sets of fold-away glass doors combine to infuse the home with an indoor/outdoor flow. Main public spaces include a living room warmed by a fireplace with floor-to-ceiling surround and a floating stone hearth, while the dining room opens to the outdoors. Anchored by two islands, one for prep and another for casual dining, the stunning kitchen shines with porcelain-slab countertops, waterfall edges, custom tile backsplash, custom contemporary cabinetry, a pass-thru to the patio for easy serving, a butler's pantry, and top-tier appliances from Sub-Zero, Wolf and Miele. On-trend design continues in the exclusive primary suite, where a book-matched stone fireplace wall, high ceiling, floor-to-ceiling windows, and a private bath with marble countertop, oversized shower and freestanding tub are on display. The casually upscale home also features wood and tile flooring, new Milgard windows and doors, designer accent tile throughout, quartz counters in secondary baths, and an attached three-car garage. High-tech systems include owned solar power, Nest thermostats, Luma security cameras, and Savant Home Automation. Terraced grounds extend almost .34 acres and reveal a pool and spa with waterfall and automatic cover, lifelike turf, and a dining patio for outstanding outdoor entertaining.
