Dana Knolls (DK), Dana Point,

Ahoy, seekers of seaside sanctuaries! Prepare to embark on a whimsical journey into the heart of Dana Point's coastal charm, where this rarely available single-story haven awaits, dressed in semi-vintage allure. Let the tales unfold of natural light dancing through three bedrooms and two baths, with an added touch of modern convenience—inside laundry. Picture this: a country kitchen that beckons with the charm of yesteryears, adorned with an island perfect for pancake flipping competitions. A sizable pantry, hiding both snacks and secrets! As you whip up delights, the kitchen's view to the back garden becomes a canvas for gastronomic inspiration. It's not just a home; it's a curated gallery of memories waiting to be made. Giant Magnolia trees stand as sentinels, whispering tales of Dana Point's rich history. As you stroll through the back, discover an Eden of your own—a lush landscape adorned with avocado, fig, and orange trees. A large patio beckons, promising leisurely afternoons and evenings under the stars, while green lawns invite playful frolics. But the story doesn't end here! This elusive single-level sanctuary stands proudly across from the thriving St Edwards Church and K-8 school, adding a sense of community and spiritual grace to your everyday life. Warning: your driveway might be the hottest spot in town on Easter Sunday. Consider it divine intervention if someone decides to park there! Journey to Dana Point Harbor in a mere six minutes, which boasts the worlds best
