T-Street, San Clemente,

Perhaps the most state-of-the-art home ever built in San Clemente, The "Genesis"™ Home is a special offering truly in a league of its own. Sited on a serene canyon by the beach overlooking the emerald ocean, Genesis came to fruition by way of deep appreciation for nature's fluid forms. Inspired by Frank Lloyd Wright's praised Guggenheim Museum NY and the Bauhaus movement of the early 20th Century, the home's design truly embodies an artistic approach with unmatched synergy. A monument to modernism designed by the highly-acclaimed C. J. Light Associates, Genesis sets the bar higher. Built to emphasize the crisp ocean horizon, crashing whitewater, surfers riding waves below, full Catalina Island, distant Dana Headlands, native canyon verdure, and colorful year-round sunset views, coastal serenity is ever apparent here. Nearly every major room is accentuated by compelling views abound including the fire-warmed main rotunda (living | kitchen | dining), private office, primary rotunda suite with spa-like bathroom, massive-equipped home gym, library with custom built-ins + dedicated home theatre. Newly-built from the ground up in 2019 on an incredibly fortified foundation with 44 caissons & steel frame, the home offers 3 luxurious suites, 4.5 bathrooms with 5,971 SF of interior living on a spanning 19,216 SF lot and a 604 SF garage (EV charging) + parking for large sprinter van. Notable details: unique & quiet cul-de-sac near beach access, privacy & canyon relief, underground utilities (no power lines), substantial interiors & curvilinear features, high-end kitchen, paid solar, logarithmic spiral tile-inlaid hardwood flooring, impressive heat-pressed floating staircase ascending all levels, whole-house smart home automation via Crestron with integrated lighting & shades, in-home theatre & sound system, dual-laundry, curved sliding glass / pocket doors, whole-house water filtration / softening, zone-efficient heating & cooling, oversized garage with built-ins & custom surfacing, in-ground ocean-view spool, fire pit, massive cantilevered limestone patios, & newly-planted coastal landscaping. A quick (and fun) bike ride to world-class surf at Trestles, a short walk to the sandy beaches below at T-street (trendy cafe on the beach) and easily walkable to downtown restaurants and shops, this is arguably San Clemente's most desired address. Extremely high-end, customized and truly the rarest of its kind, Genesis is sure to impress anyone who experiences the home.
