Look no further than this gorgeously updated and remodeled mid-century charmer. With thoughtful design inside and out, this home boasts a rare combination of amenities.

Located on a quiet no-outlet street in Westside Costa Mesa, the gorgeous California landscaping welcomes you from the first paving stone, through the attractive high wood fence surrounding the front yard, and into the first of many spaces thoughtfully maximizing entertainment space, from the firepit to the outdoor dining set under the large shade tree. Inside, high ceilings and high windows let in abundant natural light to enjoy the living room and natural flow into the warm kitchen with an eat-up counter and designated dining area. Each of the three bedrooms have the same high ceilings and natural light, and the two bathrooms are beautifully updated with a designer's touch. The backyard is also fully enclosed to maximize privacy and quiet, with a great balance of greenscape and hardscape. Other thoughtful features include a new HVAC system including new ducting, rain-barrels capturing natural runoff from the new gutters, tankless water heater, double pane windows, and a two car garage. All this within the heart of Costa Mesa, affording great proximity to shopping, dining, freeway access, universities, and of course OC's beautiful beaches.
