Lake Forest Keys (LK), Lake Forest,

Positioned along one of the widest and most coveted stretches of the main channel, this home is part of a rare collection of lakeside residences that enjoy an uninterrupted, panoramic perspective of the water. At once understated and refined, the home's interiors are anchored by a considered, open layout that seamlessly connects its four bedrooms and two bathrooms with a central gathering space. Here, the great room acts as the heart of the home, where living, dining, and kitchen zones coexist beneath vaulted ceilings and natural light. The kitchen serves as both a culinary hub and a point of connection, its placement thoughtfully designed to invite interaction while maintaining visual flow to the outdoors. Beyond, the experience of lakefront living is fully realized with a private dock capable of mooring a 16-foot Duffy, offering an ideal setting for quiet reflection or casual entertaining on the water's edge. Complementing the home's private comforts are the exceptional amenities of the surrounding community. A short stroll or boat ride leads to the residents-only clubhouse, where resort-like offerings include multiple pools, a spa, tennis and pickleball courts, indoor gym, and an array of sporting facilities. More than just a residence, this is a retreat defined by its connection to water, its sense of place, and the lifestyle it affords.
