Monarch Bay Terrace (MBT), Dana Point,

Completed in 2024, this single-level Cape Codâ€“inspired residence is a celebration of biophilic designâ€”bringing light, nature, and tranquility into every space. With 3 bedrooms and 3 baths, the home seamlessly connects indoor luxury with the restorative power of the outdoors. Natural materials and organic textures ground the interiors. White oak flooring, limestone, and marble finishes are complemented by vaulted ceilings and expansive French doors. Accordion glass doors dissolve the boundary between inside and out, opening to a panoramic ocean-view patio where sun, sky, and sea become part of daily living. The chefâ€™s kitchenâ€”anchored by a La Cornue range, Sub-Zero refrigeration, walk-in prep pantry, and custom cabinetryâ€”flows effortlessly to the entertaining island, designed to gather and connect. The primary suite is a private sanctuary with sit-down ocean views, fireplace, his-and-hers closets, and a spa bath with soaking tub and rain shower head. A guest suite opens to a serene courtyard featuring a water element and lush landscaping, creating its own moment of retreat. Designed for entertaining, the outdoor space features a panoramic ocean-view patio complete with a pizza ovenâ€”perfect for alfresco dining under the stars. Sustainable landscaping with native plants was carefully chosen for year-round color, while also attracting hummingbirds and butterflies, creating a vibrant and ever-changing natural setting. Additional highlights include a French Art Deco chandelier, biophilic architectural details throughout, smart electric shades, epoxy-finished garage, and a tankless water heating system. Set on a private, single-loaded street in Monarch Terrace, this home embodies elevated coastal livingâ€”where modern design and nature exist in perfect harmony.
