Westcliff East (WCDE), Newport Beach,

Situated near the end of Nottingham Road at the top of a gentle hill, 1001 Nottingham sits as a reminder of the architecture of a bygone era. Offering exceptional privacy, the double entry doors sit underneath a covered flagstone walk, hidden from the street by a large privacy wall & iron gates. A large formal living area with a fireplace is amply lit by oversized picture windows and walls of sliding glass. On the other side of the entry, a light, bright dining area with floor to ceiling glass offers the private entry courtyard with bubbling fountain and rock garden as a backdrop for meals and entertaining. The kitchen offers a blend of original midcentury character and modern amenities, contrasting an updated stainless steal appliance package with the homes original, refinished teak wood cabinetry. A small office nook, or additional dining space sits adjacent to the kitchen and offers access to the rear yard. The family room offers an additional fireplace as well as a built-in mirrored bar area which appears to be a wall cabinet until opened. A large sliding glass door opens from the family room out to a generous rear yard space with a large swimming pool, jacuzzi, built in barbecue with patio sink and mood lighting. In the rear corner of the yard, a small, freestanding office area can be utilized in a multitude of ways. Back inside, the bedroom wing offers two bedrooms and two full recently updated bathrooms including a master suite which opens out to the pool deck. An oversized two car garage, a laundry/mudroom and a slate roof. With two bedrooms and two and a half bathrooms, the additional, flexible spaces offer a multitude of living arrangements in an iconic and well preserved mid century structure, built in 1960.
