Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Oroville,

Beautiful and classic Mid-Century, single level home with an incredible yard and mature landscaping. You'll love the large picture windows in the family room with a fireplace, perfect for getting cozy while admiring the views. The warmth and light throughout this house is a real treasure, especially with a second fireplace. The kitchen has knotty pine cabinets and butcher block counters with ample cabinet/counterspace. There is an additional room that makes a great formal living room or den with a wet bar. An oversized primary suite is separated from the other two bedrooms giving privacy and seclusion and has its own mini split unit. The backyard is lovely, lots of yard space and stunning views of Table Mountain.. This great property is located in a highly desired location and close to town. If you're looking for a home with character, charm and a good amount of space in a premiere area, this is it!

Built in 1954
