1 Bedroom, 1.00 Bathroom, 695 sqft

Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Pasadena,

This beautifully appointed one-bedroom, one-bathroom condominium is an absolute jewel and home to the iconic Hotel Livingston. Designed by Myron Hunt & Walter Webber, notable Pasadena architects, the building underwent a significant transformation in 2010.

The Hotel Livingston was officially designated as a historical landmark and is included in the Pasadena Historic Preservation Registry. Unit 203 is a successful example of how to blend historic elements such as exposed brick walls and an enchanting, spacious, covered brick patio-style balcony with clean lines, bold colors and modern amenities. The updated kitchen features black granite countertops, stainless-steel appliances, newer subway tiled backsplash and plenty of cabinet and pantry space. The full bathroom, with a shower and tub combination, also features newer subway tile. All the windows bring in plenty of sunlight filtered by verdant treetops. The light-filled, spacious bedroom is no exception. A walk-in closet offers built-ins and plenty of space.

Additional features include central air and heat, a stackable washer and dryer and a communal courtyard on the ground level. HOA dues include insurance, one parking space, building maintenance, gas, water and trash.

The proximity to the Playhouse Village, the Paseo, Old Pasadena and South Lake Avenue is fantastic. You will never run out of plays to see, movies to watch, things to buy and places to dine. Last, freeway access for the 110, 134 and 210 is only moments away.
