N/A, Los Angeles,

Set high above the city in the hills of Mt. Washington, this stunning architectural home offers the perfect blend of modern style and a peaceful retreat. With clean modern lines, open-concept living spaces, and floor-to-ceiling windows, natural light floods the interior while framing sweeping views. It seamlessly blends modern design with a deep reverence for the natural surroundings, creating a living experience that's both luxurious and harmonious. The home is elegantly set back from the street, creating a sense of privacy and tranquility. Surrounded by an abundant display of lush greenery, it offers a picturesque view of the sparkling city lights at night and, on clear days, the majestic mountains in the distance. With its captivating surroundings and breathtaking vistas from both sides, this location truly embodies a serene and idyllic oasis. The interior features the best of mid-century modern design with clean lines and large windows of glass that blur the line between indoors and out, creating a bright and airy living space. Soft and clean walls of white, and polished concrete floors are the perfect palette to showcase collectable pieces of art. There are two spacious bedrooms and a thoughtfully appointed bathroom. The large primary bedroom faces west and enjoys sliding doors that opens to the private front patio. The spa-inspired bathroom features beautiful white custom tile and transom windows that offer beautiful views of the greenery beyond. The sleek kitchen, offers ample cabinetry, quartz countertops, and stainless steel appliances, flows seamlessly into the dining and living areas ideal for both entertaining and quiet evenings in.Outdoors, enjoy a terraced backyard with multiple seating areas, ideal for al fresco dining or morning coffee. With easy access to hiking trails, local hotspots, and downtown LA, this Mt. Washington retreat is contemporary living at its best.
