N/A, La Verne,

***** Seller has a replacement home identified and is prepared for a prompt transition. ***** This beautifully maintained and spacious home in North La Verne welcomes you ready to be occupied. This four-bedroom and two-bathroom home provides a comfortable layout that accommodates both growing families (top tier School District) and those looking for extra space on Work-from-Home setups. A generous and private backyard sitting at almost a quarter of an acre lot embodies what Southern California living is about: combining outdoor and indoor living! The family room and kitchen area directly connect with the pergola outside for a relaxing sitting area or an expansive BBQ space. There's plenty of room for a garden, play area, or even a pool addition. The adjoining kitchen boasts ample cabinet space and a charming breakfast nook, making it ideal for casual meals and morning coffee. Natural light flows throughout the house but when you are ready for some calm, the custom plantation shutters will allow you to retreat at home. The spacious living area is well complemented by recently upgraded flooring that is easy to maintain. Nestled in a peaceful, well-established neighborhood (across the street the City of Claremont begins), this home is just minutes from top-rated schools, parks, shopping, and dining. Nearby Trader Joe's, LA Fitness, and In-N-Out Burger add to the convenience, while the University of La Verne and historic downtown area bring a vibrant local charm. With its prime location, three car garage, spacious layout, and inviting atmosphere, this home is a must-see. Don't miss the opportunity to make 4275 Williams Avenue your own! The seller is prepared to move forward promptly, offering an opportunity for qualified buyers. The home has been lovingly maintained by a long-term owner and is ready for a new vision.
