N/A, Pasadena,

Welcome to 975 N Mentor Avenue, a beautifully restored 1913 Craftsman located in Pasadena's sought-after Bungalow Heaven Historic Landmark District. With its Mills Act designation, this rare offering comes with substantial property tax savings--a smart investment in both charm and value. The main residence features all the hallmarks of classic Craftsman architecture: warm wood details, built-ins, and vintage character, lovingly maintained and refreshed with new interior and exterior paint. In 2023, the detached garage was thoughtfully converted into a fully permitted ADU, providing a stylish and private space perfect for guests, rental income, or extended family. Outside, newly designed landscaping creates distinct, private outdoor areas for both the main home and the ADU--ideal for al fresco dining, lounging, and enjoying Southern California's year-round sunshine. You're also just blocks from McDonald Park, a beloved neighborhood green space with tennis courts, a playground, and picnic areas. Plus, enjoy close proximity to Pasadena's favorite local gems, including Roma Market (famous for its iconic pink sandwiches), Seed Bakery, Millie's Cafe, Lavender & Honey, Bacchus Kitchen, The Italian Deli, and so much more--you'll love the lifestyle this location offers. Don't miss the opportunity to own a timeless piece of Pasadena's history with all the modern comforts in one of its most treasured neighborhoods.
