Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, La Canada Flintridge,

Set on nearly half an acre, this Mid-Century residence, originally designed by Clair Earl, has been reimagined through the years, all while keeping its original charm. This property offers the perfect blend of timeless architecture and modern luxury. Complete privacy, and sweeping views create a true retreat from city life. The open-concept layout, framed by walls of glass, captures the scenery and embodies quintessential Southern California living. A formal living room with soaring beamed ceilings and a statement fireplace anchors the main living area, complemented by a dining room and a sleek and bright kitchen featuring Caesarstone counters, a custom designer backsplash, and stainless steel appliances. A versatile office can easily be used as a third bedroom. The primary suite boasts abundant closet space and a spa-inspired bath, all oriented to maximize the views. A generous secondary suite is complete with a designer bathroom and abundant natural light. Outdoors, the fully fenced grounds invite relaxation and entertaining, with multiple sitting and dining areas that seamlessly extend the living space. An enclosed breezeway is the perfect home gym and leads to a two-car garage. Located within the award-winning La Canada School District, this home combines architectural charm, modern updates, and an unbeatable setting.
