Dramatic architectural home with pool designed by noted architect Barton C. Phelps, FAIA, 1981. Located in historic Laurel Canyon, this unique contemporary was built for award-winning film editor Lynzee Klingman and offers breathtaking, unobstructed views of the ocean, downtown Los Angeles and the surrounding hills. Sited on a wide, flat parcel consisting of 3 lots, the home invites both relaxation and entertainment. As you enter, folding doors of glass merge interior and exterior spaces, extending sight lines and allowing for natural light to flood the interior. The contemporary layout features a cozy living area with fireplace, perfect for intimate gatherings, while the dining area sets the stage for elegant dinner parties. The open gourmet kitchen is equipped with high-end stainless steel appliances and modern designer touches, catering to culinary enthusiasts. Step outside to your private oasis, complete with a heated pool and spa that overlook the stunning LA Basin, and a wrap-around sundeck, ideal for hosting outdoor dinners under the stars.
