Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Los Angeles,

This quintessential California Bungalow and studio on a gated corner lot features mature landscaping and distant hill and mountain views in one of the most desirable pockets of Eagle Rock. The thoughtfully updated early twentieth century home has a wraparound porch, rustic horizontal siding, and low gabled roofs referencing the language of the Arts and Crafts movement established by esteemed architects Greene and Greene. Inside, updated interiors feature rich hardwood floors and a tastefully renovated kitchen and bathrooms. A generous dining nook connects the kitchen and living room. The bedrooms are arranged on one side of the house, with the primary bedroom and its en suite bathroom featuring a large window with eastern morning light. The other two bedrooms look out into the mature gardens and share a bathroom, conveniently positioned on the hallway. Not without numerous nods to the past, the home also feels pleasantly contemporary. Conveniently located near the 2 freeway and within blocks of some of Eagle Rock's favorite haunts - Capri Club, Walt's Bar, Creature's Plants & Coffee, Chifa, and Sprouts Farmers Market. Eagle Rock is also known for its Blue Ribbon, Magnet, and IB schools.

Built in 1918
