Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Paradise,

This beautiful original 1964 home that is located in one of Paradise's desirable neighborhoods made it through the Camp Fire of 2018 and has been upgraded with a new roof, new tile flooring in the kitchen, new paint inside and out, new blown in insulation and so much more. The original hardwood flooring throughout the home is just waiting to come back to life with a little bit of love. A screened in porch outside both the laundry room and the master bedroom are perfect for your plants to thrive. The home has built- in shelving and a corner cabinet that add to it's charm. The home boast of three large bedrooms, two bathrooms that have been updated with new cabinetry and lighting fixtures. The master has the original step in large shower that has been retiled to bring out a fresh look. The home has the original brick fireplace in the living room that is perfect for those cold nights. The oversized lot boasts of mature camellia bushes and fruits trees. The front yard has a large area perfect for RV parking, a large trailer or even just an additional car. There is a two car garage that has a built in work bench with drawers and a mounted window over it for working in the sunlight. The home shows how much love and time the seller has invested in maintaining its original charm.
