2 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,252 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Altadena,

Resilient. Refined. Ready. Welcome to 3199 Glenrose Avenue—an enchanting 1941 Tudor Revival nestled in a peaceful Altadena neighborhood that’s writing its next chapter. This 2-bedroom, 1.5-bath home offers 1,252 sq ft of beautifully updated living space on a 5,220 sq ft lot and stands as a beacon of strength, having weathered the Eaton Fire with only minor landscape damage and full professional remediation completed. Enjoy unobstructed 180-degree views of neighboring homes that remain untouched by the fire—an extraordinary visual reminder of this area’s enduring charm. Inside, you'll find freshly painted interiors, gleaming refinished hardwood floors, and a light-filled layout full of warmth and character. The spacious attic provides walk-in storage or creative potential. Out back, a private patio invites outdoor relaxation, dining, or entertaining, framed by mountain views and crisp air. Thoughtfully located near hiking trails, parks, and Altadena's village feel, this home offers tranquility with convenience. Bonus: The home was once owned by Lonnie G. Bunch III, Founding Director of the National Museum of African American History and Culture and current Secretary of the Smithsonian. Don’t miss this rare opportunity to buy into one of Altadena’s most iconic neighborhoods as it rebuilds and renews.
