N/A, Temecula,

An exceptional opportunity awaits to acquire a highly established Postal Annex franchise, a leading name in the parcel and business services industry in the United States. This particular location boasts a remarkable history, operating successfully for over 30 years within a bustling shopping center, benefiting from significant foot traffic and a prime retail position. This offering is ideal for an ambitious individual seeking to become their own boss and step into a proven business model, or for someone looking for a well-managed enterprise that allows for a partial retirement lifestyle. Postal Annex is recognized as one of the largest parcel franchises in the U.S., offering a diverse range of services including shipping with major carriers like UPS, FedEx, USPS, and DHL, private mailbox rentals, notary services, packing supplies, and various business solutions. This Postal Annex franchise presents a unique chance to own a business with a strong foundation and significant growth potential. The current owner's long tenure and the business's consistent performance demonstrate its resilience and profitability. For an owner-operator, the established systems and brand recognition of Postal Annex provide a clear path to continued success, with ongoing support and training typically available from the franchisor.
