Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, San Diego,

Experience quintessential San Diego living in the heart of Mission Hills. Welcome to 3144 Dove Street, a rare opportunity to own a truly distinctive Spanish-style residence treasured by the same family for 70 years. This trust sale presents the perfect chance to personalize a beloved home in one of the neighborhood's most coveted pockets.

Step inside to a warm, inviting living room with original hardwood flooring—ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The spacious oversized chef's kitchen features custom cabinetry, granite countertops, a substantial side-by-side refrigerator/freezer and ample workspace for cooking enthusiasts. A highlight of the home is the expansive approx. 625 sq. ft. dining/family room, boasting sweeping views toward the bay and downtown, along with direct access to an outdoor deck. The main level also includes a charming primary bedroom suite with abundant closet space, complemented by hardwood flooring throughout and tile in the bath. The lower level, with its own private entrance, offers exceptional flexibility. It includes a spacious seating area, a craft/office/workspace, two generous bedrooms, and a full bath—perfect for guests, extended family, or potential long or short term rental use. Outside, a larger-than-typical yard with padded area for gazebo or shed and showcases stunning downtown skyline views, making it an exceptional setting day or night. A truly special Mission Hills property—homes like this seldom come to market. Don't miss your chance to make it your own.
