N/A, Covina,

Welcome to 1528 E Dexter Street in the beautiful City of Covina! This home is ONE-OF-A-KIND and nothing can compare to what embarks on this magnificent property. This freshly updated home not only is turn-key but also has VIEWS that only few homes possess in this neighborhood. As soon as you pull on into what can soon be your long and spacious driveway and walk up to your future front door you will know what we mean by one-of-a-kind when you take that first step into the home. Large gasping windows from left to right will showcase of Covina's finest views along with some of the most beautiful natural lighting a home can get. Step into your future living room on the luxury vinyl plank flooring and you will no doubt fall in love with this cabin-in-the-woods type of vibe home. The kitchen is also very spacious with tons of brand-new white shaker cabinetry. All the appliances are stainless steel and yes, they do indeed come with the home. The countertops are a luxurious quartz and make the kitchen not only look put feel elegant as can be. Take a breath of fresh air out of one of the many decks this home possess. The living room off deck is not only large in space but was recently updated. Once you make your way upstairs you will notice the master suite has a nice loft that can be used as common space for the kiddos to be right outside your bedroom or maybe for that office space you have always wanted. As we step into the master suite it is not only incredibly large but also has beautiful naturally lighting from all the new dual pane windows. From some windows you can see the beautifully snowcapped Mount Baldy and from your own personal deck you have an amazing view of your backyard. The master suite closet is a great size and has plenty of room for all your belongings too. As you step into the master bathroom, you will be greeted with a recently renovated bathroom from head to toe. From the tile flooring, vanity, to the shower, everything is updated and brand new. All to an elegant and modern design! This home is technically a tri-level and once you step down into the downstairs living room you will start imaging all the space you have for those amazing family parties you are about to throw. Downstairs has a great deck as well that is perfect for just hanging out in the shade or having some alone time in the backyard. This home really does have it all and does not come up short when it comes to any aspect. So come on down and give 1528 E Dexter a look!
