Wilshire Square, Santa Ana,

This beautifully preserved 1929 home in Santa Ana’s historic Wilshire Square blends vintage charm with modern amenities. Original hardwood floors, mahogany molding, and wood-framed windows with diamond-pattern glass greet you at every turn. The living room features an arched decorative fireplace, while the formal dining room shines with an antique chandelier. The spacious kitchen boasts soapstone countertops, an O’Keefe & Merritt gas range, and a breakfast nook. Two light-filled front bedrooms share a classic bath with a tub, separate shower, and original built-in storage. The private rear suite, with its own entry, tiled shower, and half bath, offers versatility as a home office or creative space. French doors lead to a lush, landscaped garden with an antique soaking tub. The home also includes a separate laundry room, updated systems like central AC and a tankless water heater, plus plenty of storage. Situated on a quiet, tree-lined street, this home is part of a vibrant community known for its historic charm and neighborhood pride. Don’t miss out—call to see this unique gem today!
