Artcraft Manor (AM), Long Beach,

Welcome to this charming East Long Beach home offering a bright, open layout and an effortless blend of comfort and style. The living room features rich wood-like flooring, a cozy stone fireplace, and large windows that fill the space with natural light. Just off the living area, the expansive family room with exposed wood-beam ceilings creates the perfect setting for gatherings, game nights, or a relaxing evening at home. The remodeled kitchen has granite countertops, abundant custom cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, and a functional U-shaped layout that is open to the dining room. The home's three generously sized bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a convenient indoor laundry room add everyday practicality. Out back is the perfect year-round retreat with outdoor dining under the large covered patio, unwinding in the hot tub, enjoying the firepit, or just relaxing on the deck and pergola. The detached 2-car garage provides ample storage, workshop potential, or parking flexibility. We cannot forget to mention a driveway large enough to park 4 cars for a total of potentially 6 parking spots. Additional highlights include fresh paint throughout, abundant natural light, and excellent flow between indoor and outdoor spaces. Centrally located near award-winning schools, including the sought-after Spanish dual immersion Bixby Elementary School, as well as convenient shopping, dining, and entertainment options.

Built in 1943
