Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Torrance,

Experience refined Mid-Century Modern-inspired living in this 3-bedroom, 2-bath residence, where architectural elements meet modern efficiency in the heart of the South Bay. Clean lines, balanced proportions, and a thoughtfully designed layout create a seamless flow ideal for both elevated entertaining and everyday living. The inviting living room is anchored by a classic fireplace and pitched beam ceilings, serving as a striking focal point that reflects the home's architectural character. A functional, open floor plan supports today's lifestyle, while central air conditioning ensures year-round comfort. Enhancing both sustainability and value, the home features paid-in-full solar panels, offering energy savings. Located within the Torrance Unified School District, this residence enjoys close proximity to shopping, dining, parks, and major commuter routes. A distinctive offering that blends Mid-Century design, modern comfort, and sustainable living in one of Torrance's most desirable neighborhoods.

Built in 1956
