Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Gardena,

Welcome home!!! You'll be surprised at the amount of living space in this delightful 3 bed/2 bath home (approx. 1,478 sqft per Assessor) nestled on a quiet cul-de-sac near 182nd and Western Avenue in the city of Gardena. This modest home has wood laminate flooring throughout, smooth ceilings and is filled with natural light. The entry leads to an oversized, bright living room with adjoining dining room. The sliding glass doors frame the serene backyard with covered patio, tranquil Japanese maple tree and grassy area under a clear blue sky. It's a lovely back drop for a quiet barbeque with family and friends or for hosting life's many celebrations. Pass through the living room towards the dining area and into the kitchen where the spacious, oversized, separate family room takes you by surprise! There is a handsome fireplace that anchors the room and a large picture window peering into the park-like backyard. Don't miss the separate laundry room with utility sink and powder room on the way back to the living room. All three bedrooms are filled with natural light and dancing shadows streaming in through the windows. This cozy neighborhood is one of the best kept secrets in Gardena proper with close proximity to award winning 186th Street School and community garden, shopping and endless options for a bite to eat, coffee, boba or a sweet treat! Imagine the possibilities to make this wonderful property your FOREVER HOME...
