A Legacy of Love in the Heart of Vista Del Oro

Built in 1930, this timeless San Pedro home sits proudly on a wide, tree-lined street in the beloved Vista Del Oro neighborhood, where ocean breezes dance through the windows at sundown and neighbors still wave from their porches.

Within these walls once lived a beautiful European family who made this house their sanctuaryâ€”a place of joy, laughter, and enduring traditions. Holidays were spent around a lively table, stories were passed from one generation to the next, and love echoed from room to room. The heart of the home was the patriarch, a true king in every sense. His presence can still be felt in the warmth of the sunlight through the windows and the whispers of family memories that linger in the halls. Beyond the home, the backyard offers its own canvas for dreams. An additional detached unit stands ready to be transformedâ€”perhaps into a private guest retreat, an income-generating ADU, or even a charming wine-tasting space where friends gather over small bites and share a flight of vintages. The yard itself brims with potential: envision a flourishing garden filled with vibrant flowers, homegrown vegetables, or a tranquil oasis where the dayâ€™s cares simply melt away.

This is not just a home. Itâ€™s a chapter in someoneâ€™s story. And now, the key is passed to you. Here is your chance to begin where their legacy left offâ€”to write your own memories, to fill these rooms with laughter once again, and to be part of a neighborhood where family and friendship still mean everything. *Please note that tax roll shows different information.
