$1,559,000

3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 2,104 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Redondo Beach,

This inviting South Redondo property blends original 1950s charm with thoughtful renovations and updates. Recently refinished white oak floors and new baseboards shine upstairs in the living room and bedrooms. Outside, the home's fresh sage-green exterior and classic black shutters create a charming first impression, hinting at the unique personality within this home. The yard is a true retreat—lush with native plants that feel like a curated botanical garden, complete with a tranquil waterfall that brings a gentle soundtrack to daily life.

Inside, the home has been brightened with fresh interior paint and new curtains along with some updated light fixtures, giving the space a clean, warm feel while preserving its original style. Dual pane windows were added throughout the home and some plumbing connections have also been updated along with a new electrical panel, adding practical improvements to the home.

Just blocks from the beach, the home sits near local restaurants, shops, award-winning schools, and offers an easy commute to Torrance's office buildings and hospitals. The flexible floor plan opens up possibilities: create a private workspace with its own entrance or transform the downstairs into a serene primary retreat.

Loved and meticulously cared for by the same owner for 45 years, this property has a storyâ€”and now, for the first time in decades, itâ€™s ready for someone new to write the next chapter.

This is a home with history, heart, and room for your imagination.
