A Rare Opportunity to Own a Custom Robert Richmond Masterpiece Backing Irish Hills Open Space

This exceptional home, designed by award-winning architect Robert Richmond, is located on a quiet, private dead-end street and backs directly onto the scenic Irish Hills Open Space, offering direct access to hiking, trail running, and mountain biking.

Thoughtfully crafted with high-end finishes and natural materials, the residence features radiant heated solid hardwood floors on the main level and central air conditioning upstairs. Fourteen Anderson French doors create seamless indoor-outdoor living, opening to stained concrete patios and low-maintenance landscaping. An outdoor fireplace and private hot tub provide ideal spaces for entertaining or quiet relaxation.

The home includes four spacious en-suite bedrooms, including a luxurious primary suite with a fireplace, travertine floors, a double shower, and a classic clawfoot tub. A separate climate-controlled wine room holds up to 494 bottles.

The chefâ€™s kitchen is outfitted with a copper farmhouse sink, GE Monogram cooktop and oven, and Bosch appliances. Additional highlights include a custom Mission-style roof with authentic clay tiles, clad
