Land on 10 Acres

N/A, Palmdale,

This expansive 10+ acre parcel of vacant land, nestled just east of Palmdale/Lake Los Angeles in Los Angeles County, presents a rare opportunity for those seeking a private retreat or a strategic investment. With its prime location near the thriving cities of Adelanto and Victorville, this land offers endless possibilities—“from building a custom home or establishing a ranch to holding onto a significant piece of property in a rapidly developing area. Steeped in history, having been in the same family since the 1970s, this untouched land is a blank canvas awaiting your vision.

An added advantage is the approved bullet train project that will run from Downtown Los Angeles to Las Vegas, with a major stop planned in Victorville. This infrastructure development is expected to significantly boost demand for housing in the area, making this property not just a personal retreat but also a smart investment. Sold "as-is," the property comes without utilities and has not been surveyed, allowing you the freedom to shape it according to your needs. The lack of existing infrastructure makes it an ideal choice for off-the-grid living or sustainable development projects. Accessible via local roads and close to city amenities, this land combines seclusion with convenience. Buyers are encouraged to verify zoning and permitting requirements to fully realize the potential of this unique offering. Seize this rare chance to own a substantial parcel of land in a location that balances tranquility with future growth potential.
