4 Bedroom, 4.00 Bathroom, 3,470 sqft
Residential on 1 Acres

N/A, La Canada Flintridge,

Exceptional Mediterranean Estate in La
Cañada Flintridge.

Nestled atop a serene 24,000-square-foot knoll, this gated Mediterranean estate offers timeless elegance and architectural grandeur. Crafted by acclaimed architect John W. Byers in 1934, this quintessential California residence seamlessly blends classic charm with modern comfort. The home features 4 bedrooms, three of which are en suite - and 4 full bathrooms. The residence boasts expansive living and outdoor spaces perfect for both entertaining and quiet retreats. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a step-down living room adorned with rich hardwood floors, intricate coffered ceilings, and a cozy fireplace. Double doors open to a spacious patio, while an adjacent library offers built-in shelving and a wet bar, creating the ideal setting for relaxation or hosting. The chef's kitchen features a large center island, updated appliances, a top of the line water filtration system and flows into a bright family room complete with a second fireplace. The breakfast room is bathed in natural light and offers sweeping views of the manicured grounds and majestic mountains beyond. The elegant formal dining room opens to the backyard oasis, complete with a pool and spa, fire pit and built-in barbeque perfect for those hot SoCal days and evenings.

A versatile guest bedroom on the main level can also serve as a den or home office. The luxurious master suite is a private retreat, featuring a Juliet balcony, a generous walk-in closet, and a beautifully appointed en-suite bathroom with its own balcony. Original architectural details, such as the stunning hardwood floors, period light fixtures, and custom wood inlays, enhance the home's historic charm. This property is situated within the highly sought-after La Cañada school district, known for its award-winning education. A rare opportunity to own one of the most unique and exquisite properties in La Canada Flintridge.

Built in 1934
