N/A, Granada Hills,

Craving privacy in Granada Hills? Tucked north of Rinaldi and elevated above the street for added seclusion, this 4-bedroom home offers over 2,200 sq ft of thoughtfully designed living space—and a sense of peace you’ll feel the moment you pull up the long, private driveway. Mature trees and natural elevation provide a buffer from the outside world, while a detached garage at the end of the driveway offers serious ADU potential. Inside, a spacious living room with crown molding, wood floors, and a cozy fireplace sets the tone for relaxed comfort. The formal dining room is ideal for hosting, while the bright eat-in kitchen features granite countertops, a gas cooktop, newer appliances, and plenty of space for casual meals. A versatile den downstairs makes a perfect office, 5TH BEDROOM, playroom, or gym. Upstairs, the primary suite includes an en-suite bathroom, along with three additional bedrooms and a full hallway bath. Other highlights include newly painted exterior & interior, dual-pane windows, an interior laundry room, a newer water heater, and tree-shaded outdoor space that enhances the home’s privacy and curb appeal. Located in one of Granada Hills’s most sought-after pockets, you’re close to award-winning schools like El Oro Elementary, Robert Frost Middle, and Granada Hills Charter High, as well as parks, hiking trails, and shopping.
