$849,000

3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,450 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Van Nuys,

Set on a 10,450 square foot lot in the heart of Van Nuys, this three-bedroom, two-bathroom home offers comfort, flexibility, and long-term value for buyers who appreciate usable space and future upside in this established part of the Valley.

Fresh paint and updated light fixtures create a bright and welcoming atmosphere. Vaulted ceilings in the main living areas enhance the sense of openness, while the floor plan provides practical flow for everyday living. All three bedrooms offer generous proportions and work well as sleeping quarters, guest rooms, or dedicated office space. The bathrooms are conveniently located for shared use, making the layout functional and adaptable.

The oversized lot is a standout feature. Whether you're thinking about outdoor entertaining, gardening, play space, or future expansion, this property gives you room to grow. Homes in this area with lots of this size are increasingly rare and offer meaningful long-term potential.

This home also presents an appealing opportunity for buyers who consider long-range value. The lot size and layout make it a strong candidate for future improvements that could enhance usability and generate a higher return on investment. In a neighborhood where rental demand continues to grow, the combination of space and location creates potential for solid rental yield as well.

Nearby shops, neighborhood restaurants, and local cafes provide everyday convenience, along with easy access to schools and major freeways. The area's accessibility and residential character make it a smart choice for those looking to personalize a home with lasting value.

With solid bones and a layout that can be enjoyed now or updated over time, this home offers a rare blend of space, functionality, and future upside in a steadily evolving neighborhood.
