Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, Granada Hills,

Dreaming of a totally updated mid-century modern home in Granada Hills with iconic architecture and open-concept living? This non-contributory Eichler home was originally designed by renowned architect A. Quincy Jones and has been completely remodeled with modern finishes while preserving its iconic charm. Featuring 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, this light-filled home offers a massive great room with an ultra-open layout, brand-new kitchen with waterfall-edge quartz countertops, stainless steel appliances, subway tile backsplash, new cabinetry, an eat-in area, formal dining space, and a large island with room for stools. Enjoy multiple sitting areas, a cozy living room fireplace, new flooring throughout, and tons of recessed lighting. The primary suite includes a white wood ceiling, walk-in closet, and attached updated bathroom, while the three additional bedrooms share a beautifully remodeled hallway bath. There's also an inside laundry area and an open, airy design with plenty of windows. Step outside to enjoy the low-maintenance backyard with artificial grass, a spacious deck, and multiple areas perfect for relaxing or entertaining outdoors. Located north of Rinaldi in Granada Hills, this mid-century modern home sits within the Balboa Highlands Historic Preservation Overlay Zone. Whether you're a fan of mid-century design, Eichler architecture, or simply moving to Granada Hills for its parks, hiking trails, top schools, or easy freeway access, this modernized Eichler-inspired home is not to be missed.
