2 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 900 sqft
Residential on 0 Acres

N/A, San Bernardino,

Every morning begins the same way here at 1460 Kendall Drive #21. I wake to sunlight spilling through the blinds of my upstairs bedroom. Mirrored closet doors reflect the glow, and the quiet hum of the new HVAC keeps the space just right. Soft, brand-new carpet cushions my steps — that fresh, cozy feel underfoot makes the space even more inviting. A quick shower in my private bath sets the tone for the day, and with both bedrooms and closets upstairs, it feels like a private retreat.

I pad down the stairs and am greeted by warm laminate flooring and an open living space that instantly feels alive. The kitchen, with stainless-steel appliances gleaming under recessed lighting, makes mornings a joy. I brew coffee, glance into the living room where sunlight pours through sliding glass doors, and step outside to my fenced patio. It's my little slice of outdoors — perfect for a potted garden, a chair, or a book while the world passes quietly beyond the fence.

Evenings are just as easy. Friends come by, and we cook while conversations flow from the kitchen to the living room and dining area. The layout makes it effortless, like the home was designed to hold laughter. After dinner, we sometimes wander down to the community pool. The spa bubbles under the palms, the pool glistens under fading light — a shared backyard where neighbors wave, kids play, and everyone feels a little more connected. Life here isn't just about what's inside these walls â€” itâ€™s about the rhythm of the community. Just minutes away, Cal State San Bernardino buzzes with energy, bringing growth and possibility. The Little Mountain neighborhood offers quiet tree-lined streets, and weekends often mean a quick drive to the San Bernardino Mountains â€” hiking in the morning, Big Bear in winter, or a summer picnic at Glen Helen Regional Park. Shopping and dining are close, and with the 210 and 215 freeways nearby, the whole Inland Empire feels within reach.

Each day ends with me pulling into my attached garage, stepping right into the kitchen â€” seamless and simple. At night, I slide the patio door closed, flip on the ceiling fan, and sink into the calm.

Living here isnâ€™t just about two bedrooms, a remodeled kitchen, or a private patio. Itâ€™s how these details come together to create a life that feels easy, welcoming, and full of possibility. This isnâ€™t just a condo â€” itâ€™s mornings of sunshine, evenings by the pool, brand-new carpet upstairs, and every chapter feeling like home.
