A Rare Mid-Century Gem in Glendora!

Cherished by the current owner for one and half decades, this beautifully maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom mid-century home offers the perfect blend of charm, space, and convenience in one of Glendora's most desirable neighborhoods. With 1,394 sq. ft. of living space on a 6,732 sq. ft. lot, this home features a well-designed open floor plan that feels inviting. Enjoy breathtaking mountain views right from the front door, adding a serene and picturesque touch to your daily life. The backyard is a standout feature, offering a wide, open layout that feels incredibly spacious—perfect for relaxing, entertaining, or creating your own garden retreat. Situated in the highly sought-after Glendora Unified School District, with access to top-rated Glendora High School, this home is ideal for families. Plus, it's within walking distance to the Glendora train station, Albertsons, Starbucks, and local restaurants, making errands and dining out a breeze. The primary suite boasts a generous walk-in closet, a beautiful modern primary bathroom with walk-in shower and freestanding soaking tub - a rare feature in mid-century homes. With pride of ownership evident throughout, this is a true hidden gem in Glendora. Don't miss out—schedule your private showing today!
