N/A, Ventura,

Tucked away with only one neighbor and backing up to the serene Barranca Vista Park, 6941 Dove Street offers the kind of privacy, charm, and flexibility rarely found in Ventura. Located in a power line-free neighborhood--no poles, no erector sets--this home offers clear skies, quiet streets, and an ideal Southern California lifestyle just 5 miles from the beach and walking distance to the Boys & Girls Club. Step inside to find a fully refreshed interior with new flooring, upgraded bathrooms, crown molding, new baseboards, bullnose corners, and stylish silver appliances in the upgraded kitchen. Fresh paint inside and out means you can move right in and start living. But the magic truly begins in the back--where a permitted 398 sq ft ADU/shop with dual garage doors creates a breezy open-air flow perfect for game days with a mounted flat screen, casual hangouts, or even building out a guest suite or home office. With two 100-amp panels, multiple 220V hookups, and Edison-upgraded electrical, this space is a blank canvas for the hobbyist, entrepreneur, or visionary buyer. The third bedroom can easily be reimagined--add a second door for flexibility, or open up the closet (hidden just behind drywall) to convert it into a more functional and inviting space. From its newly paved driveway to the quiet church lot behind providing unmatched privacy, this property is ready for someone to live well, create freely, and entertain in style. Whether you're a car enthusiast, an investor, or simply someone with a dream, this home checks all the boxes.
