N/A, Lomita,

This one feels like home the moment you arrive. The home sits on a quiet cul-de-sac in one of Lomita's most sought after neighborhoods and shows pride of ownership throughout. The home is a three bed two bath with beautiful vintage wood floors that bring character to every room. It includes a renovated primary bathroom with updated finishes and a bit of extra privacy from the other rooms. The home has a two car garage and a long driveway to take care of your parking, with plenty of space for guests or extra storage. The backyard is enclosed with a cinder block wall on both sides and features an above ground spa. The home is located close to the 110 and in a beautiful neighborhood where homes rarely come available. This one will not last. Call me or your realtor today for a showing.
